WHEN THE LAW IS CHALLENGED

SYNOPSIS

" Satta Apne Baap Ki " is fundamentally a socio--political drama with certain amount of gang violence and many a political murder. Many of the shocking incidents are broadly inspired by real life happenings. The story mainly revolves around two major characters, Gridhargopal, a dirty corrupt politician, and Vikrant Kumar, an honest inspector of police. Gridhargopal is a sitting MLA. Armed with political power, Gridhargopal is involved in various kinds of illegal activities such as extortion--collection, brothel business, gambling dens and liquor bars etc. with the misuse of his political power. His younger brother Shankara is a known gangster. The tussle begins when inspector Vikrant starts a clean-up drive and raids all the illegal bars and clubs across his jurisdiction thereby all the illegal business runners are forced to down the shutters. Gridhargopal is infuriated by this action of inspector Vikrant. He tries to buy the cop but to no avail. Vikrant is an idealist police officer who has a reputation for himself in the department. The rift between inspector Vikrant and Gridhargopal gets even stronger when Vikrant apprehends the latter on serious criminal charges. However, spending two days in police lockup Gridhargopal gets released on bail.

From this juncture, a war between Khadi and Khaki begins. In a dramatic twist, inspector Vikrant is abducted and brought to Gridhargopal's farmhouse, where a Basti girl called Naghma is already captive. Gridhargopal's men hold and put Vikrant on gunpoint while rapes the girl. The girl dies in the process of rape. Then Gridhargopal dares inspector Vikrant to go to the court and prove the crime as he is the eyewitness of this barbaric rape and murder. Giving challenge to the police officer Gridhargopal lets him go unharmed. After this incident the battle between Khadi and Khaki gets even more intensified. Naghma's rape and murder becomes a talking point across the city consequent upon the media hype. At a later stage, Gridhargopal gets inspector Vikrant even suspended. Naghma's mother, grandfather and brothers run pillar to post for the justice but to no avail. As the story moves towards the climax Naghma's brothers, Rajesh and Dilawar join hands with suspended officer Vikrant, and how these three characters destroy the empire of crime and corruption of Gridhargopal forms the hair-raising finale. . . . .
